WITHOUT regard to cost of merchandise or previous selling prices, we propose to make this week one GRAND CARNIVAL of Bargain-Giving. It's an impossibility to make supply just equal the demand, therefore all excess must be gotten rid of, only through a positive loss. Not an item is to be carried over, and it's a noteworthy fact that "The Paris" justly claims that each season sees them with all new, fresh goods on their counters and shelves--no past-season stock being shown. And so it comes that this Grand Carnival of Bargain-Giving offers you golden opportunities--in other words, a veritable triumph in bargain-giving.
